

Conference on English and Communication 2016

English for Travel

Friday, 11 March 2016
6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

College Theatre
Kowloon East Campus
28 Wang Hoi Road
Kowloon Bay

All are welcome!

A dinner buffet will be served after the conference.

Enquiries:

Mr. Tommy Lui
tt.lui@hkuspace.hku.hk 37620905 or log on to our College homepage at [http://hkuspace.hku.hk
/cc/news-and-events/news
/english\_conference\_2016](http://hkuspace.hku.hk/cc/news-and-events/news/english_conference_2016)

Language and Intercultural Journeys: Meaning-making through Reflective Writing

Keynote speaker:

Prof. Jane Jackson

Professor of English, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Jane Jackson is the recipient of CUHK's 2013 Education Award. Her research and publications center on education abroad, identity, and language and intercultural communication. She has had teaching and research experience in Canada, the United States, Egypt, Oman, the United Kingdom, Mainland China, and Hong Kong. She loves to travel and is a keen photographer.

The Ultimate Survival English for Travelers

Keynote speaker:

Ms. Miriam Lee

Project Manager & Managing Editor, Hong Kong Discovery

Graduating with a master's degree in English, Miriam Lee has been an expedition leader, writer, editor, documentary producer, TV presenter, and blogger. She is Managing Editor of Hong Kong Discovery, a bilingual magazine showcasing Hong Kong's scenic and cultural delights to visitors. As an avid traveller, she has made backpacking trips, filmed in quaint and exotic villages and led expeditions to the world's remotest and most challenging spots.

HKUSPACE Community
College 香港大學附屬學院